The festival Committee wishes to thank our Sponsors and Friends for their continued and valued support. If you contact any of the Sponsors who have advertisements in this syllabus, please tell them where you saw it: this helps both them and us. We always welcome new sponsors/advertisers. Please contact the Secretary for details. Friends automatically receive their complimentary copy of the Programme and a free pass for all events. To become a Friend of the Festival, please send £15 per person to the Treasurer by 1st December. Greater donations are of course always welcome. Stewards and helpers are always a very valued part of the Festival and help with the smooth running of the sessions. If you could spare two or three hours to help please contact the Secretary.

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to our Festival. Our aim is to provide a platform for amateur performers of all ages. We invite you to take part in any or all of the five sections and we are always happy to give any advice you may need. I am always surprised and delighted by the standard of the talent that appears every year. This is your chance to shine so go on, surprise yourself and others... Ask your teacher to enter you, or enter yourselves. Our adjudicators are trained to make constructive and helpful comments about your performance and our aim is to encourage.

After our successful gala concert at the Sarah Thorne Memorial Theatre, we will return there for this year's event on April 1st... and are also using it for the drama section as we can then hold classes at the weekend with less disruption to school work. We have also added more classes to the instrumental section... so...what are YOU going to enter this year? How many sections can YOU compete in?!

GENERAL RULES

1. The festival is open to performers of all ages, and from all locations.
2. Unless otherwise specified, performers in all classes must be amateurs (an amateur is considered to be one who does not derive the main part of their income from that section of the art in which they are proposing to enter the Festival NOR is receiving full-time professional training in that subject). This does not apply to accompanists or conductors.
3. A performer must be the specified age on 1st March in the year of the Festival. In age specific classes the age of all performers under 21 must be noted on the Entry Form in the appropriate column. Some classes are reserved for Senior Citizens, but senior citizens are also welcome to enter any other adult class.
4. Impersonation will debar all participants in the fraud from taking part in this or any future Festival.
5. All performers in choirs or other groups must be bona fide members.
6. Entries must be made by the closing date, 1st December. Late entries will only be considered if agreed in advance with the relevant Convenor(s) and may incur an extra charge.
7. No late entries or alterations will be allowed after the programme has gone to press, except where a mistake has been made by the Festival. ALL alterations must be notified to the relevant convenor by 1st December.
8. The Committee reserves the right to combine classes or cancel any class due to insufficient entries.
9. A performer may perform a piece once only in this year's Festival and may not include a set piece in an 'Own Choice' selection.
10. 'Own Choice' titles should be stated on the Entry Form and should be limited to 3 minutes unless otherwise stated. Late selections must be notified to the convenor no later than two weeks prior to the commencement of the section.
11. Performers must provide a copy of 'Own Choice' items for the adjudicator (see separate sections)
12. Payment of Performing Rights Fees is the responsibility of each performer.
13. Any good edition of set pieces will be accepted.
14. The convenor reserves the right to commence any class up to 15 minutes before the appointed time (up to 30 minutes in the Dance section).
15. Entries that exceed the stated time limit will be penalised and the adjudicator reserves the right to stop a performance that is overrunning.
16. Entrants in the Instrumental section must bring their own instruments (including drum kits etc.) unless cleared in advance with the Section Convenor.
17. Performers are respectfully asked to dress as befits the occasion.
18. NO PHOTOGRAPHY, SOUND or VIDEO RECORDING is allowed during performances as they can distract performers as well as infringing copyright and our child protection policy. Mobile phones must be switched off.
19. NO SMOKING is allowed inside any of the Festival venues during the Festival.
20. Those in the audience are expected to behave appropriately, e.g. not entering or leaving the hall while a performance or adjudication is in progress and above all remaining silent while others perform and when the adjudicator or stewards speak. Anyone deemed not to be behaving appropriately will be asked to leave; no refund will be given in this case.

21. Parents/guardians are responsible at all times for the welfare of the children/young people in their charge. The Festival does not hold itself responsible for any injury sustained by any competitor or member of the public whilst on the Festival premises.

22. All trophies awarded at last year's (2011) Festival must be returned to the TROPHY SECRETARY by 1st March 2012. Similarly, all trophies awarded at this year's (2012) Festival must be returned by 1st March 2013. Those wishing to have their names engraved on trophies they have won must arrange this by themselves.

23. Any complaints relating to the competition should be sent to the Secretary in writing enclosing a S.A.E. Any queries regarding a section should be directed to its Convenor.

24. The decision of the Adjudicator is final. He/she shall have the power to withhold any certificate if, in his/her opinion no performer reaches a sufficiently high standard. Awards are also at the Adjudicator's discretion and may not necessarily reflect the highest mark in a class or section.

PLEASE CONSULT ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS FOR INDIVIDUAL SECTIONS

GENERAL ADVICE

- Please ensure also that all entrants are placed in the correct classes. Once the programme has gone to press it is difficult to make changes
- Occasional slips happen to everyone; so it is often a good idea to enter two or more classes, e.g. one class set by grade and one open class.
- Presentation is an important part of any performance, so consideration will be given to entrants who, for example, introduce their pieces clearly and acknowledge applause at the end.

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

Thanet Music and Drama Festival ("TMDF") aims to provide a safe and caring environment for all its participants, and to conform to current child protection legislation. The following constitutes TMDF's child protection policy:

1. Purpose

The purpose of the festival is to advance the education of the public in the performing arts, by holding an annual competitive festival and presenting public performances.

2. Environment

It is our policy under the Protection of Children Act 1999 to involve parents/guardians/carers and teachers in partnership with us to ensure a safe environment at the festival, insofar as it is reasonably practicable.

3. Application

This policy relates both to children under the age of 18 and to those vulnerable adults who are identified to the organizers prior to their arrival at the festival. The festival recognizes the needs of children who are disabled or from ethnic minorities, and will seek to meet any specific needs notified to the festival in advance by parents/guardians/carers or teachers.

4. Personnel

TMDF is run entirely by volunteers, all of whom have independent references and are briefed about the terms of this policy. Should any problem arise regarding the terms of this policy, it should be notified to a TMDF Committee member, identifiable by badge, who will take appropriate action in a discreet manner.

5. Preparation

All participants in this festival will be expected to have seen this policy. In accordance with this policy, it is essential that parents/guardians/carers not personally attending the festival be satisfied that their children etc. are accompanied and adequately supervised by responsible adults acting on their behalf; TMDF staff will not undertake this rôle. With group entries, the group leader must ensure that all parents/guardians/carers are aware of this policy. Each person signing the entry form thereby takes full responsibility for those entered by the form.

6. Changing areas

It is emphasized that the article above applies equally to changing areas, i.e. that responsibility remains with the supervising adult in each case. Property left unattended is also not the responsibility of TMDF.

7. Photography

No photography (including video photography) is permitted at the festival, other than by accredited members of the press. Such photography will always take place in a public place. Any parent/guardian/carer not wishing the individual(s) in their care to be photographed must notify the photographer in good time.

8. Legislation supporting this policy

The Children Act 1989, The Police Act 1997, The Data Protection Act 1998, The Human Rights Act 1998, The Protection of Children Act 1999, The Criminal Justice & Court Services Act 2000.

9. Review

The TMDF Committee will review this policy at regular intervals, consulting the British & International Federation of Festivals for support and advice on best practice. For any queries relating to this document please contact the Secretary.

ENTRIES AND FEES

CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRIES: 1st DECEMBER 2011

PLEASE SEND TO THE TREASURER:

Genny Piper

PLEASE DO NOT SEND TO THE CONVENOR

ENTRANTS ARE ADVISED TO SEND ENTRIES EARLY due to popularity of some classes, and the difficulty of producing an accurate programme on time. Late entries (at an extra charge) will only be considered if agreed in advance with the relevant Convenor(s).

The Committee reserves the right to reclassify in the light of entries received.

Please indicate the appropriate section and class number on your Entry Form (in the centre of the syllabus) as follows:

P – Piano S – Speech & Drama

D – Dance I – Instrumental

V – Vocal C – Choral

e.g. V25, S77, P161

Please indicate on the form if the competitor is in more than one section to avoid timetabling problems where sections coincide. A contact number is also required.

SENIOR CITIZEN CLASSES

Senior Citizens are welcome in any class of our Festival not otherwise restricted by age, and special classes can be provided on request. Fees for Senior Citizens are £1.00 per class.

For further details please contact the section Convenor(s).

ACCOMPANISTS

The Festival does not retain 'official' accompanists for the Instrumental or Vocal & Choral sections, but the following are known to us and may be contacted privately:

Kay Blackburn David Ruddock

Ian Carmalt Pam Turnlund

Jeffrey Dinnell David Yeates

George Martin

SECTION RULES

(See also General Rules)

1. Classes S70 – S112 (inclusive) must be performed from memory.
2. Choral Speech: It is permissible for groups to have one or more soloists. Movement is allowed so long as it enhances the speech.
3. Mime: Sound effects and music may be used. No stage props allowed.
4. Drama: Simple props and costumes may be used. Bona fide stage props may be used and should conform to safety standards
5. Bible Reading: Any version may be used with an additional copy for the Adjudicator
6. Public Speaking: Audio/visual aids may be used where appropriate. Classes S132 and S133 should be in the form of an informal talk, while performers in Classes S134 and S135 should regard their work as a speech to an audience. Notes may be used for reference.
7. The Adjudicator and/or Convenor will bring to a halt and disqualify any Speech and Drama item which by reason of its unsuitability for a young audience seems likely to give offence or cause embarrassment.
8. Group Improvisation: Each group is expected to prepare its presentation independently of the teachers and it should be original and spontaneous.
9. Drama may include original scripts, dramatised poems or Bible scenes, published or unpublished.
10. The performers' own choice pieces will be taken into account in the marking and must present a sufficient challenge in thought, technique and duration.

Please also note...

- Special classes for '1st time entrants' (meaning first time in any Speech and Drama class in any Festival) have been included in the younger age groups to give encouragement to young people new to the Festival movement.
- Please ensure that the timings of Duologues and Dramas are included on the entry form.

VOCAL AND CHORAL SECTION

SECTION RULES

(See also General Rules) Please read carefully

1. 'Own Choice' items should be limited to 3 minutes for the Juniors, 4 minutes for the Adults and Ensemble choices (unless otherwise stated) and titles and composers of these should be sent to the Vocal Convenor by 1st February 2011. An original copy (not photocopy) should be provided for the Adjudicator and brought on the day of the Festival Section. All the set music should be easily available, but if there is any difficulty in obtaining copies please contact the Vocal Convenor. In the case of Set Pieces, the Adjudicator will already have a copy.

2. Performers are asked to provide their own accompanists. For advice and information with regard the availability of accompanists please contact the Vocal Convenor.

Taped backing or backing CDs are allowed as long as an original copy of the sheet music is available for the adjudicator. These backings must be within the stated time limit.

3. Performers who work during the day should state on their form when they would genuinely be unavailable. Whilst every effort will be made to avoid time-tabling at what might seem awkward times it should be appreciated that this cannot be guaranteed.

4. An 'Art Song' is a Secular (non-Sacred) song, written for the voice and piano, and is often a setting of text. It does not include popular songs or material from the shows. If younger children want to sing a 'non-Art Song', they should enter the other categories for Under 13s / Under 16s. Teachers are respectfully requested to guide their pupils in selecting 'Own Choice' items. Material should be suitable for the age and level of voice development. Teachers should also ensure that their song is suitable for the class being entered. For advice on the suitability of material please contact the Vocal Convenor.

5. The choice of music and general presentation will be reflected in the marking.

6. In Folk, Light Opera and Modern Style classes personal interpretation will be allowed where appropriate and the candidate will not be expected to adhere strictly to the written score.

7. Young accompanists (i.e. not professionals) who are accompanying singers in any of the Vocal or Choral classes are eligible for the Thelma Springford Award.

Young accompanists wishing to be considered should give their name to the Vocal Convenor before the start of the class or classes for which they are accompanying so that the adjudicator can be advised.

8. The set pieces for both Junior and Adult classes may be sung in any appropriate key, unless otherwise specified.

DANCE SECTION

SECTION RULES

(See also General Rules)

1. Duets and groups are governed by the age of the oldest performer.
2. Duets and trios – dancers may perform twice in each class with different partners.
3. Entries are timed from the first note of music.
4. The committee reserves the right to commence any class up to 30 minutes before the appointed time.
5. The choice of music and presentation will be reflected in the marking.
6. Performers should provide their own music clearly marked and ready to play (one cassette or cd for each dance). If not it could reflect in your marks.
7. No re-dance for 11 years and over unless the problems are beyond the performer's control.
8. No pointe work under the age of 13.
9. All props should be non-breakable and conform to safety standards.
10. All music must be handed in at least two sections before you are due to perform, if not it could lead to you being withdrawn.
11. Song and Dance must have no chanting or vocals of any kind in the music. If there is you will not be marked.
12. Tap music must not have any sound effects that sound the same as tapping, it will result in you not being marked.
13. The adjudicator's decision is final.

To avoid difficulties and upsets please ensure that music is recorded at the beginning of a tape which is clearly labelled.

A good level of volume and careful cutting enhances presentation.

A good idea is to carry a spare copy of your music.
